1.0 Overview

1.1 Introduction
Best Seafood Practices’ (BSP) Responsible Fishing Vessel Standard (RFVS) Auditor and Industry Observer Training Program is an intensive, classroom-based seminar conducted several times a year. The program includes basic discussion on fishing vessels and social auditing, as well as a comprehensive training in the RFVS Requirements and group central management systems requirements.

Part 1: Requirements of the Responsible Fishing Vessel Standard (RFVS):
This section of the course is intended for all auditors and is compulsory if they wish to audit against the RFVS. The aim of this course is to go through the RFVS criteria to give an overview of their intent and provide examples of compliance to the standard. In addition, the course will give training on auditor safety in executing this RFVS audit and advice on how to arrange audits with commercial fishing vessels.

Part 2: Central Management System (CMS):
This section of the course is designed for auditors who would like to conduct Group Fleet audits on single-handers or crewed vessels. It will focus on Quality Management Auditing skills to meet ISO 9001/22000 or a GFSI recognized standard equivalence.

Course Duration: 2 days and final verification examination

The RFVS Training Program is taught by a qualified BSP staff member, consultant, or by senior auditors with practical field knowledge and expertise in their respective modules.

In addition to new candidates and returning auditors, Global Seafood Alliance (GSA) encourages interested industry observers to join the course for a first-hand, in-depth look into the RFVS. Space is available on a first-come first-served basis.

Course announcement details and other information can be found on the BSP website:

Independent auditors not currently working for or subcontracted by a RFVS approved certification body—wishing to apply to attend the RFVS course(s) as an independent auditor candidate have two options:

If so, make arrangements with that certification body to send them all required credentials and have them screen your candidacy. Once the candidate has been confirmed by the certification body to meet the requirements the certification body is to send the candidate’s name and credentials to RFVS for final approval and invoicing.
- Submit your credentials as described in this document directly to BSP for screening. State the exact RFVS categories you are seeking approval for, and ensure you meet the requirements.
